(Only frontline workers in the Violence Against Women Sector can become members of the Single Sex Providers Network. If you do not work in this sector you can still join Frontline Feminists Scotland. Please visit our website at www.frontlinefeministsscotland@gmail.com)

We adhere to Frontline Feminists Scotland's beliefs and values;

- Women experience various issues and forms of sex-based discrimination.
- Feminism is a political theory, as well as a way of life, it has had a significant impact on increasing women's opportunities, and should be recognised as having a vital contribution to progressing women's rights further.
- There is a global pandemic of male violence against women, including commercial sexual exploitation, as such this should be a priority for all government bodies, international, national and local. All women deserve to live a life free from fear.
- Every woman is entitled to express herself and her reality, should be actively encouraged to do so, be listened to and believed when she does.
- Women must be at the centre of their support and have a right to single sex service provision.

Membership Donations

Frontline Feminists Scotland is an activist group. We currently receive no funding. Any membership fees will provide venues, refreshments and / or expenses for activists and campaign materials. We recognise that it may be difficult for some to contribute, and therefore rely on fees and donations from those who are able to be able to do so.
